Elevate Your Small-to-Medium Enterprise: Exhibit with Impact at the 2024 EuCNC & 6G Summit SME Booth!

Unleash the potential of your business by securing a prime spot at our exclusive SME booth during the EuCNC & 6G Summit. This bespoke opportunity is designed for small-to-medium enterprises like yours, offering a cost-effective way to showcase your work, gain exposure, and forge connections with industry professionals.

Why Opt for the SME Booth?

The SME booth is your gateway to cost-efficient visibility, providing a desk-style exhibit area that allows you to spotlight your company and products without stretching your budget. It's the perfect platform to convey what makes your enterprise unique and leave a lasting impression on summit attendees.

Key Benefits:

- Cost-Efficiency: Showcase your offerings without breaking the bank, making it an ideal choice for SMEs.
- Visibility: Gain exposure and draw attention from industry professionals, potential partners, and customers.
- Networking: Establish valuable relationships for potential collaborations and sales opportunities.

Important Details:

To seize this opportunity, submit your proposal by the deadline on April 15th, 2024. Join us in shaping the conversation on the latest trends and innovations in wireless communications. Be a part of the EuCNC & 6G Summit's SME booth to amplify your presence, connect with industry leaders, and pave the way for your business to thrive. Proposers should provide information on the Title, Objective, Motivation and Background, Description, and associated Requirements.

The proposal should be submitted to the Exhibitions Co-Chairs, Jeroen Famaey, Emrah Kinav and Michael Dieudonne, via email to exhibit-eucnc6gs@grow.tecnico.ulisboa.pt.
