EuCNC 2016 is the 25th edition of a successful series of a conference in the field of telecommunications, sponsored by the European Commission. The conference focuses on aspects like 5G communications systems and networks, cloud platforms, management technologies, and applications and services. It targets to bring together researchers from all over the world to present the latest research results, and it is one of the main venues for showcasing (demonstrating, trialling) the results of research projects, especially, from successive European R&D programmes co-financed by the European Commission.

Exhibition and Demonstrations proposals are invited in all Tracks (a full list of topics is available at the website):

- Air Interfaces (PHY, MAC, RRM)
- Optical Communications - Networks
- Software-Defined Infrastructures
- Management Technologies
- Convergence with Emerging Concepts
- Business Aspects - Vertical markets - Applications/ Services
- Testbeds and Experimental Research

Exhibition and Demonstrations may address one or more Tracks, but they should be organised under a unified theme.

Exhibition and Demonstrations are expected to show the demonstration of novel technologies and/or their application.

Detailed information on the space and technical conditions for exhibitors is available at the website.

Exhibition and Demonstrations are supposed to have at least one person present at least during lunch and coffee breaks, in order to present the content to attendees. The conference registration (without conference dinner) for this person is included in the fee paid for the exhibition booth.

The Exhibition will be open during the entire conference, from Tuesday, June 28th, 09h00, until Thursday, June 30th, 12h00.

Exhibition and Demonstrations proposals should be submitted via a specific template and according to the instructions available at the website. Proposers should provide information on the Title, Objective, Motivation and Background, Description, and associated Requirements.

Key dates

29 Apr. 2016 – Exhibition and Demonstrations proposals submission deadline
