

Few Hours to Go!!!

Message from the Local Organising Committee:

In just a few hours, the 25th edition of the European Conference on Networks and Communications opens its doors to hundreds of participants from all over the world, who will arrive in Athens, Greece.

The secrets of “the Dawn of 5G” will be revealed and numerous important scientific developments will be presented. The keynote speakers and the coordinators of the workshops and the tutorials, special sessions & panels, as well as the presenters of the papers & posters and the exhibitors are specialists and the discussions are expected to be of the highest level.

We are overwhelmed and happy to be part of this important organization, not only for the context of the conference per se. It is the fact that with our work, we facilitate some of the most exclusive global knowledge to be shared with a very diverse audience. It is also moving, that this inspirational event, is coming to Athens and therefore we are determined to prepare for you not just a conference, but a complete experience. This is last informative newsletter for the EUCNC2016. Please find below all the necessary, last-minute, useful links.

We will see you soon in Athens!
